Should be Divided.

The News said last Sunday that the First, Third and Fifth wards ought to be divided. We are willing also to admit that for the convenience of the voters the Fourth ward might also be divided.—Sunday News.

Supervisor's Notice.

With a view of making a general cleaning-up of our borough and putting it in a healthy condition I request all residents to sweep the dirt out of their gutters into piles on Friday, May 29, after which I shall send teams along to have it removed. I trust that all will join in the good work. DAVID LEWELLYN, Supervisor.

Rates.

Steamship tickets, with best and fastest steamers, from Shenandoah to Liverpool, only $22. This includes railroad fare to all parts of the West, South and Southwest, at Max Reese's, railroad and steamship office, 16 West Centre street, Ferguson Hotel block, Shenandoah.

A Day Out.

Washington Camp No. 205, P. O. S. of A., has decided upon giving an excursion to Lakeside Park on the 18th of June, during the week that Pawnee Bill and his wild west shows are there. The committee having the matter in hand will spare no pains to make the excursion a success, and we have no doubt but that the members and their friends will reap the benefit, both socially and financially.

Card of Thanks.

MAHANAY CITY, May 21, 1891. Allow me to return thanks for the amount of $110 paid me to-day by Mr. B. L. Talley, General Manager, and David T. Williams, agent, of the Home Friendly of Baltimore, on the death of my mother, Anna McCarl, 113 West Pine street. I recommend this good society to all wishing protection in time of need. JOHN McCARL, (son).

"Gettysburg."

During a recent visit to Philadelphia a representative of the HERALD visited the new cyclorama of Gettysburg at the corner of Cherry and Broad streets, which is under the supervision of General St. Clair Mulholland. Those who have seen the old cyclorama should not miss seeing this, the greatest of all. In the old one but one day's battle could be seen. In the present one all the battles are portrayed in a manner that is startling in the almost life-like figures and actual fighting. To the old soldier a reproduction of Gettysburg is always a treat.

The President's Trip Illustrated. Several pages of pictures in Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper this week are devoted to President Harrison's trip to California. The battle-field of Gettysburg and its monuments also require a page; a fashionable four-in-hand passing the Vanderbilt mansion in New York presents a remarkably attractive first-page picture, and another page is devoted to the adventures of the Leslie exploring party in Alaska. "The Millennium: An Impending Catastrophe," by Professor Totten, of Yale University, is the leading editorial in Frank Leslie's, and a startling one it is. Printed in English and German. Price ten cents.

AT THE CHURCHES.

G. A. R. and W. O. T. U. Services Held Last Night.

There were special services in two of the churches of town last evening. At the Welsh Baptist church Rev. D. I. Evans preached a special Memorial sermon and the members of Watkin Waters' Post, No. 146, G. A. R., were in attendance in a body. The sermon was an excellent one and seemed to gratify the veterans very much.

In the Methodist Episcopal church members of that and the English Lutheran and Presbyterian churches assembled to hold Union services with a view to raising funds to aid the World's W. O. T. U. The service was of a very interesting character and substantial assistance was offered the W. O. T. U.

Startling Facts.

The American people are rapidly becoming a race of nervous wrecks, and the following suggests the best remedy: Alphaeus Hempstead of Butler, Pa., writes that when his son Dr. Miles' great Restorative Nervine cured him. Mrs. J. B. Miller, of Volant, and J. D. Taylor, of Logansport, Ind., each gained 30 pounds from taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. Mrs. H. A. Gardner, of Volant, Ind., was cured of 40 to 50 convulsions a day, and much headache, dizziness, backache and nervous prostration by one bottle. Trial bottles, and free books of marvelous cures, free at C. H. Inganbuch, the druggist, who recommends and guarantees this unequalled remedy.

All members of Camp 205, P. O. S. of A., are notified to meet in their camp room on Tuesday, May 26th, at one o'clock, p. m., to attend the funeral of our late brother, I. M. Blaker. Mr. Palmer's Disclaimer.

EDITOR HERALD:—I have been charged with being the author of the letters to your paper over the signature "Taxpayer." I hope you will do me justice by denying that I wrote or had anything to do with the communications. C. G. PALMER, Shenandoah, Pa., May 25, 1891.

DESTINY AND DEITY.

Destiny gives us diseases, since we may be born into scrofula and specific disease; but Deity supplies the remedies. Scrofula and specific diseases, with their terrible army—rheumatism, gout, ulcers, boils, carbuncles, skin diseases, stomach, liver and kidney troubles, and a safe, infallible, rapid cure in the great Brazilian medicine, Cactus Blood Cure. No failures and no relapses. A. Kirlin's Drug Store, Ferguson House, Shenandoah.

Special Trains.

Arrangements have been made for special trains to leave town on the Lehigh Valley railroad for Mt. Carmel, Centralia, Lost Creek, Raven Run, Ashland, Girardville, and Mahanoy City at 10:30 o'clock on the 27th inst., after the close of the Savage concert, at Ferguson's theatre, Shenandoah.

HUTCHISON HITS.

What County Papers Say of Manager Hutchison. That the Ferguson House, of Shenandoah, is deserving of the reputation of being one of the best hotels in the county, no one who has ever sat around Mine Host Hutchison's board, will dispute. The way in which he took care of the Press Association is deserving of more than we can say for him.—Orangeburg News. Mr. Hutchison, proprietor of the Ferguson House, Shenandoah, has incomparably improved the Ferguson House, over its former proprietors. There is no better hotel in this section of the state. Mr. Hutchison and his efficient clerk Charles Schuster, are to be congratulated.—Ashland Local.
